DRC Response

DRC works to protect and support refugees from Ukraine in onwards movements in Europe through:

- Asylum counselling and protection support to refugees arriving from Ukraine
- Direct reception operations providing immediate shelter, food and non-food items and medical assistance to people arriving at their destination countries
- Assistance to national and local authorities and local civil society to receive and possibly integrate refugees arriving from Ukraine
- Collaboration with Ukrainian diaspora groups via DRC's DEMAC initiative

DRC Response in Wider Europe

As the refugees from Ukraine are moving from neighbouring (border) countries to other countries of destination in Europe, local authorities, civil society including Ukrainian diaspora organisations prepare for further refugee arrivals.

Through DRC operations in Italy, Greece, Georgia, Kosovo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Serbia, DRC is assisting in the response based on yearlong experience within integration, asylum and protection work, including host family support, civil society engagement and collaboration with local authorities.
